

Q Do you know what other property she has in the way of personal property?

A That is all, the personal property, furniture and all.

Q How about cash in bank?

A Well, she has several bank books. I went out there and took the liberty to take that stuff to Baltimore in the original box she kept, and before I took it I went through it roughly and I haven't looked at it since, because I felt like I didn't have any right to go into that.

Q The only point I ask this for is to determine the bond.

A Well, as near as I can get at it, it would be between $10,000 and $11,000 - just a rough estimate.

Q That is all of the estate: cash and personal property and real estate?

A Cash and personal property, yes, as far as I could tell. Of course I didn't go to the banks and ask any questions, because I didn't think I had a right to do that.

Q Before your mother was taken to Dr. Riggs' Sanitarium, had she been treated anywhere else?

A Yes, Dr. Easterday treated her one time. Then we brought her into the Frederick City Hospital. She was in here two weeks.

Q Then what happened?

A Well, she became so obnoxious there in a way - what I mean by that, she lost her mind and she would talk all night, and we weren't asked right out to take her away, but we got very nice hints it would be better if we took her away.

Q They had difficulty in taking care of her?

A Yes, they had to strap her in bed, and those cases they couldn't handle.

Q She has been at Dr. Riggs' Sanitarium since September?

A Yes, sir, I think so.

Q The bills for those services remain unpaid?
